

Recommendation Letter

To whom it may concern,

This letter is written to attest that Sacha Fortune has successfully completed the Become a Book Editor course delivered through ELVTR and taught by me.

Throughout the course, Sacha demonstrated a strong aptitude and displayed great potential as we worked our way through the multifaceted world of book publishing. I was constantly impressed by her dedication, analytical skills, and editorial proficiency.

Sacha developed a comprehensive understanding of the various roles and processes within the industry, while showcasing sound editorial nous and confidently analysing market trends, genres and their audiences to make informed editorial decisions.

Sacha's final project, which consisted of devising an editorial plan for a book, was particularly impressive. Her research was thorough, and her strategic thinking about a book's potential was well beyond what's expected of a student. She elaborated an in-depth analysis of a book's editorial merits and developed a sophisticated publishing strategy for it, which included considering important editor-adjacent parts of the process, such as creating a design brief, writing jacket copy and compiling ideas for a campaign.

I am confident that Sacha will be a valuable asset to any team. Her passion for books, combined with her editorial skills and comprehensive understanding of the publishing processes, will undoubtedly contribute to her future success.
